National Eucharistic Congress

National Eucharist Revival June 2023 - July 2024: Why do we call it "Mass"? In the ancient world, it was customary to close an assembly with a formal dismissal. Still a product of their culture, the early Christians would conclude every eucharistia in the same way: "Ite, missa est" or "Go, it is ended," much like we still do today. The earliest concrete account using the term Mass is 380 AD by St. Ambrose of Milan. Based on the casual language he used, we can assume that the word "Mass" was commonly used by this time. [excerpt from Every Sacred Sunday] As Catholics once we are fed by Sacred Scripture and by the Eucharist, we are called to go out and serve the word with the love of Christ.

Women's Bible Study: We will starting the Fall sessions on August 25 after the 8:15 am Mass. Plan on joining us and invite a friend. All are welcomed. If you have any questions, contact Arlene Borkowski at amb052976@gmail.com or text (304) 482-1186.
