National Eucharistic Congress

National Eucharist Revival June 2023 - July 2024: We know that the early Christians met twice in a weekend: first in a meeting to hear the Scriptures, and later in the day to celebrate the Eucharist. For a brief period, this first meeting was actually in the synagogue at Sabbath; it was a safe place to gather and hear the Word of God. At the time, there was no "New Testament" to incorporate, as those books, letters, and Gospels were still being written and lived out. Toward the end in the first century a tortured Christian describes worship this way:...the Christians would meet on Sunday before sunrise and sing hymns to Christ, proclaim an oath, and depart. Later that day, they would meet again to partake in a meal." While this is not a lot of detail, it's easy to see in this account the outline of Mass as we know it today.

The J Dollar Breakfast will be on Sept. 20th at New Hope Baptist Church off Rosemar, Up Hill
