Divine Mercy Sunday

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. On seeing the Risen Christ and being filled with the Holy Spirit, the disciples went from fear to awe inspiring joy. They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles, to communal life, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. God in His great mercy gave them, and us, a new birth to a living hope in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. St Thomas needed to see and touch to believe. We can touch and see Jesus in the Sacraments, especially in the 'breaking of the bread', the Eucharist. Remember the Easter season lasts 50 days, until Pentecost, June 7. Challenge for the week: Make a plan this Easter season to fully participate in the life of the Church and the Sacraments especially Reconciliation and the Eucharist.

Women's Bible Study: We meet from 9-10:30 on Friday morning after 8:15 Mass. If you have any question, contact Arlene Borkowski at (304) 482-1186, amborsk@citynet.net.

Save the date! Good times and good food is coming! The Parish picnic is planned for May 17th, 2026. Details upcoming in future bulletins.
